Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 10.

THE LATE "DUEL "-Tie Newark (Del.,) Ladger reporter claims to have seen the recent duel pear that town between Dr. White and Mr. Adams, of Pailadelphia. According to that paper the pisto's were loaded without balls, and when the principals fired the sec at dehit ecch duelist with a hickory nut. This caused them to think they were shot, and both fell senseless to the ground. It took a great deal of brandy and water to revive them, and when the Ladger reporter, who was leested in an adjoining tree, laughed at the sourc, he was invited down to "take something."

SHEEP .- We suspect there never were as many lambs in this county in ary seeson as we have this spring. Every farm has its supply, and generally they are doing very well. Some are now going to market and brirging fine prices. The product of sheep this sesson will pay well for the rasing. The high price of wool will have a tendercy to keep up the price of mution, as more sheep will be kept back than would be the case if wool were lower. Sheep raising is becoming very popular with our pgriculturists .- Leesburg Washingtonian.

CITY TREASURERS OFFICE.

No. 2 Market Building,
No. 2 Market Building,
Alexandria. Va.. April 13 1880.
To the tax payers of the city of Alexandria:
As the time for making my final settlement with the State on account of the revenues for the year of 1879 is near at hand, I would respectfully call attention to the following extract from the instructions of the State Aparter of from the instructions of the State Auditor, ad dressed to me viz: When county or corporation treasurers receive the commissionar's books of their respec-tive counties and corporations, they are charged upon the books of the auditor of public accounts with the amount of tex s thus placed in their hands for collection. They have until the 15th day of the next June to collect and pay these taxes. Those which connot be collected may be returned 'delinquent.' Any sum; which are neither paid nor returned delinquent, must be paid by the treasurer or his sureties."

It will be seen that I must settle all traes not returned insolvent by June 15th next, and none can be returned insolvent where there are offects sufficient to make the amount of taxes. It will be impossible for me to grant any extension of time for payment to any one; and I hope prompt payment by those indebted will relieve me of the unpleasant duty of enforcing payment, as the law directs. M. B. HARLOW, city Treasurer.
